

CERTIFICATE OF AUTHENTICITY

TALIESIN BARREL CHAIR

This certificate verifies the authenticity of this piece of Frank Lloyd Wright® Furniture by Copeland.

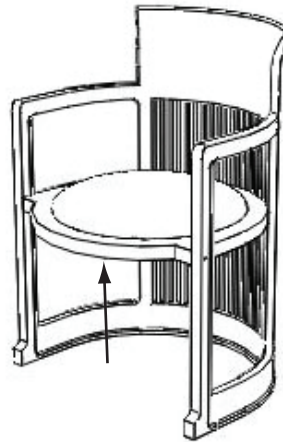

The Barrel Chair is one of Frank Lloyd Wright's most recognized furniture designs and an icon of design and style. Originally designed in 1903 for the Darwin D. Martin House, Wright re-designed the chair in 1937 for the Herbert F. Johnson House, "Wingspread", in Racine, Wisconsin. Around that time, Barrel Chairs were also made for Mr. Wright's own house, Taliesin, in Spring Green, Wisconsin.

This Taliesin Barrel Chair is produced from Wright's drawings and on-site measurements at Taliesin. It was re-issued in 2006 by Copeland Furniture of Bradford, Vermont. Copeland Furniture holds the exclusive license to build the furniture designs of Frank Lloyd Wright as granted by the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation, Taliesin West, Scottsdale, Arizona.

The piece bears a unique serial number, its date of manufacture, and the signature of Frank Lloyd Wright. (The arrow notes information position in the diagram below).
